FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Largely Attended at First Congrega-tional Church Thursday Evening.

The fellowship meeting held in the First Congregational church Thursday evening was largely attended, in spite of the bad weather. There were good delegations of members from the Congregational churches in Windham Center and South Windham as guests of the local church, and with the attendance from the city the gathering was a fine one. The evening was most pleasantly spent by all. The topics displeasantly spent by all the spent by Horse Caught Hoof in Tracks.

Near the railroad station there was excitement Thursday morning between 9.30 and 10 o'clocb, when a horse hitched to a single wagon became caught in the rails of the crossover. It was some little time before the horse's foot could be extricated from its vise like clamp and the rails had to be pried apart.

The foot was caught between the planking and the rail of the east-bound track. The horse has a badly ruised foot. The animal was one wheel by the Lincoln & Boss com-any, and the wagon to which it was ttached was joaded with coal. The concert at the Baptist church Thursday evening by the church chorus under the direction of Mrs. Arthur M. Brown delighted the large audience that attended. The chorus was pleasingly assisted by Miss Alga, E. Webber, reader, of Boston; Miss Mabel A. Young, soprano; Charles Edward Prior, Jr., tenor, of Hartford, and Ernest E. Bullard, violinist, of Norwich. The programme follows: The deeds for the Moulton property, on Milk street, and along the railroad, including a couple of small parcels of land adjoning, were passed Wednesday to the Willimantic Machine company, and the money was paid over by the company to commence work on the construction of their new plant just as soon as the weather conditions will permit.

Miss Young, Full-Chorus, Organ,
Plano and Anvil.

The chorus, with the exception of Miss Young and Mr. Prior, were all from the Baptist church and were: Sopranos, Miss Mabel Young, Miss Grace Bicknell, Miss Katherine Babcock, Miss Alice McBroome, Miss Mabel McBroome, Miss Mass Elizabeth Whiting Miss Lillie Jones, Miss Theresa Raney, Miss May Raney, Mrs. George Sparks: altos, Miss Ida Foster, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Alice Brown, Mrs. E. R. Gardner, Mrs. F. H. Gilbert; tenors, Charles Edward Prior, Jr., Benjamin R. Gardner, Charles F. Gardner, Wallace H. Payne; bassos, George H. Prior and Everett H. Hiscox. The accompanists for the evening were Miss Emma Babcock, Miss Olive L. Carpenter, Mrs. Charles Edward Prior, Jr., and Mrs. Arthur M. Brown.

Jewett City people were much pleased to enjoy the opportunity of hearing Mr. Prior, now solo tenor at the Center Congregational church, Hartford. Mr. Prior is a native of Jewett City and has many warm friends here who heard him at his best. Mrs. Brown received much praise for her success in bringing the chorus of twenty-one voices to such a commendable mark as evidenced in the interpretation of The Village Blacksmith, a fifteen-minute cantata in which Longfellow's poem is finely set to music by Noyes.

Miss Young is always heartily welcomed by audiences at home as well as in other towns. Her obligatoes in Master L. H. Healey of the State Grange has secured the services of N. P. Hall to speak at North Haven on March 8th and in Willimantic on the 9th. Mr. Hall is president of the American Dairymen's association and is also master of Michigan State Grange. The committee for March 9th is L. C. Fanton, L. H. Healey and E. E. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mathewson of Chicago are visiting Mrs. Mathewson's brother, Charles A. Southworth.

Assistant Agent Austin D. Boss of the American Thread company is in New York on business for the company.

Pessimism and Potatoes.

There was a time when "plain living" required as little definition as "Nick thinking" attill does But also.

Mrs. Hennon was unable to get out very much, except to be in attendance at church, to which she was much attended the was much attended the was much attended. Her best interests were given to her home, from whence her passing will cause a very great sorrow. A large circle of devoted friends will miss her in many ways.

She was born 69 years ago in Roscommon, Ireland, where she married John Hennon. The family made their home in Lawrence, Mass., for several years, and have Eved in Jewett City sixteen years. She is survived by her husband, John Hennon, two daughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Eugenic, of this place, and three sons, Rev. Charles Hennon of Laconia, N. H., Rev. Herbert Hennon of Westville, N. There was a time when "plain living" required as little definition as "high thinking" still does. But, alas, with the science of dietetics the troubles of the poor layman have steadily multiplied. He hardly knows what to Mrs. Elizabeth F. Brooks.
Frederick H. Fanning has been notifield of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Fanning Brooks, which occurred in Worcester Feb. 16. She was $6 years of age. She was the daughter of Henry and Sarah (Haie) Fanning and was born in Jewett City May 39, 1828, and will be well remembered by the older inhabitants of Griswold. She moved from Jewett City in March, 1847, to Worcester, where she married, Dec. 2, 1851, Charles Edwin Brooks. He was for many years previous to his death treasurer and librarian of the Worcester County Horticultural society and multiplied. He hardly knows what to eat or how.

Here is a London expert advising him to 'cut out' potatoes from his diet without regard to mercy. Potatoes, the aforesaid, savant asserts, cause chronic dyspepsia, depression, worry and premature death; the contain no nutriment and overtax the digestive apparatus; the idea of eating them is too absurd to be tolerated another day.

Now, the potato has been a godsend to millions in times of famine, and it has figured prominently in all plans for the simple life—compulsory or preferred. If, however, it is really the cause of pessimism and nervousness—diseases of the age, as they have been called—we must put it on the index of forbidden foods for the sake of the joy of life. But are we not entitled to ask for something like a unanimous verdict of the specialist jury? How about the perplexity and pessimism caused by divided opinion on things that so crosely concern us as the potato does?—Chicago Record-Herald.
